

CONTRIBUTED PHOTO

THE RIGHT PRICE Michael Price, right, president of Eastport Real Estate, the company that is handling the sale of St. Joseph Church, donates a plaque with the names of the 287 parishioners from St. Joseph Church who served in World War II to Albert Arena, director of the Waltham Museum. Also donated were five cornerstones of the old St. Pierre School, which was part of the church.